

Stacy L. Sollenberger

Partner

Stacy L. Sollenberger is a partner with ISHR Group and an Executive Coach. With over 19 years in human resources as an HR Leader, business owner, strategic consulting partner and executive coach, Stacy brings a wealth of practical, hands-on knowledge and counsel to her clients. She is most passionate about coaching and leadership development as well as teaching leaders how to coach for maximum performance and fulfillment. Stacy graduated from GE's Human Resources Leadership Program, was certified as a Six Sigma Quality Black Belt, and an auditor for GE's Audit Staff. Her corporate career as an HR Leader included HR Generalist and HR Specialist roles in both Union and non-Union environments.

As an Executive Coach, Stacy is dedicated to understanding her clients as individuals and establishing a partnership built on trust and respect. Her personable style is balanced with a practical and thoughtful approach, which fosters greater discovery and long-term impact. Her coaching clients range from "early career" individuals seeking personal and professional fulfillment to senior leaders of multinational corporations seeking to "let go of the old habits" to become more effective in their broader, more strategic roles.

Stacy designed and developed the full spectrum of Leadership ROI™ and GUIDE Coaching™ courses offered by the ISHR Group. The interactive, customizable courses are unique and impactful experiences that leverage the coaching, assessment and development expertise of the ISHR Group. Stacy's recent clients include Coca Cola Enterprises, GE, The Hartford, Hexcel, IBM, Rexel, Signature Flight Services, and Walmart. She is a certified practitioner of The Birkman Method and the Herrmann Brain Dominance Instrument Assessment Tools and is a graduate of The Coaches Training Institute (CTI).

Stacy earned her Bachelors degree in Social Science and a Masters degree in Labor Relations / Human Resources, both from Michigan State University. She lives in Atlanta with her husband, Alan, and three children: Emma, Brennan & Gavin. Stacy loves adventure: she is an avid runner and enjoys traveling the world.

Areas of Expertise

- Talent Assessment
- Executive Coaching
- Leadership Development
- Facilitation & Training

Industry & Sector Experience

- Manufacturing
- Consumer Products

Functional Experience

- Human Resources
- Training & Development
- Labor Relations
- Organizational Development
- The Birkman Method
- HBDI Assessment Tool

Education

- B.A. – Social Science
- M.A. – Labor Relations & Human Resource Management
- Coaches Training Institute